Edground: "As always Bangana did great ep. I like the Deeper Love. Really feeling it. I played it on my radio show and I'll play again, for sure."

Lars Behrenroth (Deeper Shades Of House): "Big room action. Will def. drop the Deeper Love track this weekend at my gigs here in Germany. Also on the show as soon as I get back! Deeper Love will have the dancers go into a trance; I can't wait for their hands up in the air!"

Huggy: "I really like the No Suck Edit. Perfect for my sets"

Kaay Alexi: "Love them all. Must have more."

Steve Parr (Faize Music): "You got a real nice deep and twisted thing going on with these ones.' Fantasma' Very dynamic in sound, love the percussive beats working with the sounds it creates a varied sound-scape that keeps you on the edge and that breakdown with the plucking keys and elongated sound is really cool.! 'Deeper Love' well what can I say.. The 'Raw Sex' classic Suck It Deep bought right up to date, this is gonna' send the floors wild, with it's big key sounds and whisping haunting groove."

Sabo: "Yes! the new Bangana's sound tight, and as always, the production is really clean and bright. I'm liking the subtlety of the "No Suck Edit" a little more than the OG. Definately for the late late late night deeeeeep crowds. Unfortunately, crowds like that are few and far between these days in NYC. Oh well... "Fantasma" is right up my alley, with the pumping brazilian percussion, and the half step breakdown. I'll be playing that one for a while!"

Cosmo: "Loving the Fantasma and the Deeper, Love (No Suck Edit). In my bag to bring to Japan next week. Thanks! You guys are doing a great job as always!"

Rainer Trüby: "Heavy duty music once again, lovin the Fantasma track and feelin the 2 Deeper Love mixes. Will no doubt set floors on fire."

Greg Brogan: "Thanks for this track, played over the weekend to a good reaction!! Liking the deep, haunting feel to the keys and strings not to mention the electro feel coming through on bass and synths. In keeping with the vibe of the moment!! Builds to a nice breakdown then really gets going with the vocal 'Shrik' ;) Would love to hear a bigger sound system as i reckon it will do damage! Keep up the good work guys!"

Mike Stukes: "Some serious erotic shit going on here. NICE!!!"

Umberto Giannini: "Quality & Style never go out of Fashion – another epic release."

Claude Monnet: "I love Fantasma and I already put it in my radio show last Sunday. Sounds a bit like a dj Gregory track."

The others although are well produced are a bit deep for my sets but I think they will grow on me. The Fantasma although still deep has the infectious percussion groove and mad synth with the strings. Like this a lot but again not ideal for everywhere I play but will definately sneak this into a set.”*

Andrius Videnski: “I like Deeper Love with The Suck, it`s not that deep afterall :) Keep up the good work!”

Ben Sowton: (Seamless Recordings): “Very nice track”

REVIEWS:

Spirit Of House: “Combo and Alf Tumble kick of 2007 under their Bangana disguise with a phat two tracker that offers surprising musical moments. "Fantasma" is a drum driven track built around the soundscape from an old horror movie, featuring spaced-out keys that give it a sinister, menace feeling. "Deeper, love" is a deep'n'techy affair featuring electro keys, an organ ride and explicit vocals (a clean version will be available in digital format only) that build and builds throughout its entirety.” (MF)
