Florian Kruse: "This is a really cool and minimal release in case of the melodic sounds. The percussions are groovy, crazy and everything else, but not minimal. This combination makes it and gives these tracks a special feeling. I'm especially into Mrs. Moore, I love that wicked piano sound. I'll play it from tonight onwards! GOOD WORK!"

Señor Lobo: "Bangana gets here even deeper! Favourite here is Mrs Moore. Great stuff!!"

Jojo Flores: "Mrs. Moore. Another great track! I'm all over this one... definitely top 10 material."

Robin (Faze Action): "A New release on Heya Hifi. Bangana have been putting together some fine tunage for the last few years now and they always have their finger firmly on the pulse. This lates offering is no different. Oh my mind is a stripped out Jazzy, deep tumper which is ideal for keeping that floor moving early in the morning. Mrs. Moore is just nuts. It can get you lost and hypnotise you. If you catch yourself saying "Where is the one", you have missed the point. Just give yourself up to these tunes."

Eddie Souzzo (Insoulpicante): "What can i say about Combo & Alf Tumble, those Swedish guys have something special to produce high quality music. "Mrs. Moore" is another awesome choon from Sumo-Bangana's Factory. Wicked!"

REVIEWS:

Hearingisbelieving.blogspot: "Inspired by the writing of an early twentieth century British Christian mystic, Evelyn Underhill, this tasty two tracker features House rhythmic that will appeal to the mind as well as the feet. "Oh My Mind" features fractured beats, mysterious key work and confusing bass dalliances. "Mrs. Moore" plods along with the help of a bottomless bassline and 'nice' keys." (JF)

Spirit Of House: "Bangana return on HEYA HIFI with another slammin' release that is guaranteed to rock the dance floors. Both "Oh my mind" and "Mrs. Moore" are deep house jewels on a slight techy edge, featuring hypnotic ambient-ish synths that give the tracks sort of a mysterious sensation. Enjoy and explore the mystic side of deep house music with this wicked release from Bangana." (MF)
