michael Stukes	The D'julz mix is WICKED! Play it LOUD!!!
M.A.R.S.	original: very deep and powerfull baseline compared with the typical driving Bangana beats and the amazing voice of Clarissa Muvemba make the tune very playable and club orientated remix: just take the flow of the original and make it a bit more straight and monoton, which turns the track into a peaktime houstune i will play both tracks, and i think you can play them in differnt sets, in a more calm warmup set aswell as in a peaktime set - very well done
Pippi	yo! guys!! i like the 2and mixes! respect! full support!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

huggy anton	Nice release Again!!! Original is my favorite, proper sound by Alf & Combo... with the sweet and sexy voice from Clarisse!!! The break kill it!!!! Really surprised by the choice of djul'z to remix it but nice Idea!!! More minimal sound with the clarisse vocal did it for the afterhours atmosphere... Hypnotic!!!!!! Keep the vibe guys!!!!!
D Widenski	Another great piece of work from you guys, will play the Original for sure!
Dave Alcock (MN2S)	Dope trax and I love the vocal but Im not sure how they sit together. Im definaly gonna burn this up and give it a good thrashing in the clubs though :) Great work again guys. d
Huw Ellis - DJ Huwston	This is a really nice haunting song that reminds me of maybe something by Massive Attack circa Protection or Mezanine. Dark but soulful. I like the D'Julz remix - it would work as a bridging record and would sound huge on a big PA.
Robin Munro	Tremendous EP - Love both versions, but D'Julz mix just pips it for late night action. Definately on the playlist and it will be receiveing club play.
Justin UnaBomber	Another killer track. As good as it gets. When are you guys gonna do a mediocre track to let me know you are human after all. Good remix too. peace Justin UnaBomber
nicolas fanciulli	D Julz mix is ace!!!!
Henri Kohn	like both mixes! proper stuff.

just one	nice bits of groovy tech. brings me back to trax and then detroit in a way... tru techno. d'julz mix is that much more subtle, adding syncopation and a moodier vibe to it... this one gets banged for sure.
Sarah Favouritizm	a stong solid deeper workout, love the way this track build up, very powerful. will make good for a late set on a sweaty dancefloor

David at djvox.com	What a blinder of a track this is! The Bangana boys and the new Mother Clarisse together on a project that is full of atmosphere and tension as well as haunting stabs and backdrops, a mixture of shades and sounds that break out of the normal matrix and head towards more exciting pastures. Flip over and there is also a fantastic remix from D'Julz that just turns up the flame even more... A must!!!
Soy Mustafa	These tracks are firin.....loving the melanchony feel of Clarissva voice totally uplifting yet not overpowering...th music is tight. D'Julz takes it on anice deeper tip typical of todays sound..8/10
